

Today in History

November 3, 2014

▲ One World Trade Center, the tallest building in the western hemisphere, opened 13 years after the original twin towers were destroyed on September 11, 2001

1935: The people of Greece voted to restore the monarchy

1957: A dog called Laika became the first ever space traveller when the Soviet Union launched Sputnik II

1970: Salvador Allende, the first Marxist to become president of a Latin American country, was sworn in as president of Chile

1985: Two French agents in New Zealand pleaded guilty to sinking the Greenpeace ship Rainbow Warrior