

Afghanistan earthquake

A powerful earthquake has struck northern Afghanistan, with tremors felt as widely as Pakistan and northern India. The 7.7-magnitude quake was centred in the mountainous Hindu Kush region, southeast of Feyzabad

