

Russian passenger jet goes down in Egypt

A Russian Airbus carrying 224 passengers and crew has crashed in the Sinai peninsula, close to an area where the Egyptian army is fighting Islamic State-linked militants. The A-321 was flying from Sharm el-Sheikh to St Petersburg in Russia

