

Turkey's AKP wins snap election

Turkey's ruling Justice and Development Party (AKP) has won a critical parliamentary election, regaining the majority it lost in June

SEATS PER PARTY

Justice and Development Party (AKP)

Conservative, Islamist
49.4% of vote

276 needed
for majority

Republican People's Party (CHP)

Centre-left, secularist
25.4%

Nationalist Action Party (MHP)

Far-right
11.9%

People's Democratic Party (HDP)

Pro-Kurdish, left-wing
10.7%

