Growing list of no-go zones for airlines Egypt's Sinai Peninsula has become the latest addition to a list of no-go zones for commercial airlines amid fears that the crash of a Russian passenger jet was caused by a bomb U.S. and UK security sources suggest bomb could have brought down Airbus A321 as it left Egyptian resort of Sharm el-Sheikh METROJET # Dnepropetrovsk (eastern Ukraine) Simferopol Afghanistan (Crimea) Sinai Peninsula Flights restricted by FAA at or below 8,000m (26,000ft) Syria Iran Libya Iraq Egypt Mali South Sudan Yemen Somalia AIRSPACE D.R. RESTRICTIONS Kenya Congo Imposed by U.S. Federal Aviation North Administration (FAA) Korea As of Oct 14, 2015 Airspace prohibited Airspace restriction (security warning South Korea or altitude limit) Sources: FAA, wire agencies © GRAPHIC NEWS