

Fairphone launches new modular smartphone

Dutch-based Fairphone aims to produce a smartphone designed with minimal harm to the planet, and with a longer lifespan than most phones

FAIRPHONE

Looks like regular, if slightly chunky, Android phone

OS: 5.1 Lollipop

Length: 143mm

Width: 73mm

Thickness: 11mm

Weight: 148g

Screen claps (slide to open)

3 Dual microphones and Micro USB 2.0 charging port

4 Battery: 3.8V Lithium-Ion

5 Base platform: Snapdragon 801 processor, 2GB RAM, 32GB flash storage, wi-fi, 4G network, Bluetooth 4.0

Backplate: Available in four colours

MODULAR BREAKDOWN
Replaceable modules held in place by sliding clasps or regular Phillips screws

1 Display: 5-inch, full HD LCD TFT, 1080x1920 pixels resolution

2 Front camera (2MP), headphone socket and receiver

Phillips screws

Cost: $562

Available: December 2015

6 Rear-facing camera (8MP), with flash