

New Moscow skyscraper is Europe's tallest

The Federation Tower – designed as the centrepiece of Moscow's International Business Centre (MIBC) – is set to become Europe's tallest building, overtaking the nearby OKO and Mercury City Tower

FEDERATION TOWER

Floor area

439,000 sq m

Cost

$1.2 billion

Antenna spire

450m*

EAST TOWER

374m

Floors: 95

89-93: Bar, restaurant, viewing deck

WEST TOWER

242m

Floors: 63

59-60

Pool, gymnasium

Apartments

49-58, 61-62

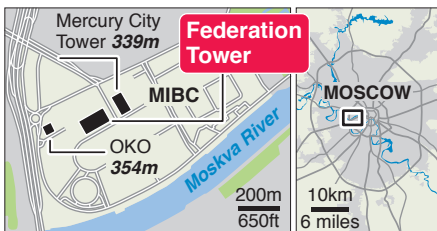

Apartments 63-86

49-60 Hotel

7-46: Offices

-1 to 4: Shopping arcade

1: Entrance level (four entrance lobbies)

HOW IT COMPARES

900m

Burj Khalifa (world's tallest building)

Dubai, completion 2010

828m

800

One World Trade Center

New York City, 2014

540m

700

Federation Tower

(East Tower)

Moscow, 2016

374m

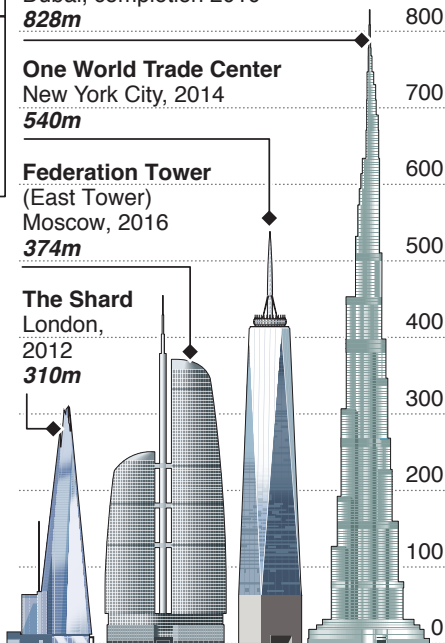

600

The Shard

London, 2012

310m

400

-2 to -4: Offices, conference room

*Featured in original design, dismantled in 2015 after being partially constructed