

Today in History

December 20, 1915

▲ The Allies began retreating from the disastrous Gallipoli Campaign of World War I. The campaign led to heavy casualties among both Allied and Ottoman troops

1951: The first electricity generated by nuclear power illuminated light bulbs at the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission's testing station in Idaho

1990: Israel was censured by the UN for the killing by Israeli troops of 21 Arab rioters on Temple Mount

1995: NATO troops took over UN peacekeeping duties in Bosnia

1995: Britain's Queen Elizabeth urged Prince Charles and Princess Diana to divorce