

Bentley SUV offers off-road opulence

Bentley's Bentayga – the most powerful and fastest SUV in the world – combines unparalleled luxury with off-road performance

Panoramic glass roof: Covers almost 60 percent of roof surface

Engine: Volkswagen 6-litre, 12-cylinder, twin-turbocharged W12 TSI.
Powerplant remains lubricated at up to 35 degrees of tilt in any direction

Power: 608PS at 5250-6000rpm
Torque: 900Nm at 1250-4500rpm
0-100km/h: 4.1 seconds
Top speed: 301km/h

Instrument binnacle:

Features two large analogue dials, multifunction digital screen, and heads-up display

Mulliner Hamper Set: Complete with fridge, storage area and Linley china cutlery, crockery and crystal glass

Dash clock: Optional Breitling-Mulliner Tourbillon self-winding clock, with eight diamond indexes. Tourbillon mechanism counters affect of gravity
Cost: €150,000

Transmission: ZF eight-speed automatic gearbox, permanent all-wheel drive, 40:60 front to rear torque split

Drive Dynamics Mode: Four drive modes – Sport, Bentley, Comfort and Custom – designed for on road driving plus four responsive off-road modes to match terrain

Dynamic Ride: Air suspension system offers various ride heights

Adaptive Cruise Control (ACC): Enables driver to maintain set distance to vehicle in front. Predictive ACC uses navigation data, sensors and cameras to predict conditions and modify vehicle speed