

South Korea launches psychological warfare

South Korea has unleashed a barrage of high-decibel propaganda via loudspeakers along the border with the North in retaliation for its nuclear test

Punggye-ri test site: North Korea claims it conducted hydrogen bomb test

Battery of as many as 80 loudspeakers could stand up to 10 metres tall

PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS

- Messages critical of Kim Jong-un regime
- International news, commercials for consumer goods, and “K-pop” music
- Considered an insult by North which has in past threatened military strikes to stop them
