

Today in History

February 6, 1917

▲ Zsa Zsa Gabor, flamboyant U.S. actress and socialite renowned more for her nine marriages than her movie career, was born in Budapest, Hungary

1971: Apollo 14 astronaut Alan Shepard hit three golf balls with a six iron club on the moon

1976: Patricia O'Shane became the first Aborigine to be admitted to the Australian bar, practising in Sydney

2011: Thai and Cambodian soldiers renewed clashes over a disputed 900-year-old Hindu temple

2015: Houthi rebels dissolved Yemen's parliament, and UN efforts to broker talks broke down