

Today in History

March 10, 1886

▲ Charles Cruft, manager of a dog biscuit firm, held his first dog show in London. Crufts is now the world's largest show of its kind, featuring 28,000 dogs each year

1996: An Andean Community economic bloc was created in Latin America

2006: NASA's Mars Reconnaissance Orbiter entered orbit around the red planet after a seven-month journey

2007: Over 30,000 Sri Lankans fled intense fighting between government forces and Tamil Tiger rebels

2010: Myanmar's junta brought in a law banning anyone with a criminal conviction from joining a political party, so barring Aung San Suu Kyi