

Today in History

April 19, 1906

▲ Pierre Curie, French scientist who with his wife, Marie, won the Nobel Prize for Physics in 1904, was run over by a dray in a Paris street and killed instantly

1943: The remaining 60,000 Polish Jews in the Warsaw Ghetto rose up against the Nazis. The uprising was crushed after three weeks

1995: A car bomb tore apart a federal building in Oklahoma City, killing 168

1999: Germany's parliament met in the Reichstag building in Berlin for the first time since before World War II

2001: Generic versions of branded drugs were legally available to treat AIDS in South Africa for the first time