

Coordinated suicide attacks in Brussels

At least 31 people were killed in two explosions at Brussels airport and a further blast at a metro station. The attacks came four days after the arrest of a suspect in November's attacks in Paris that killed 130 people

Salah Abdeslam: Main fugitive in Paris attacks, seized on March 19 following shootout with police in Molenbeek neighbourhood

Mohammed Belkaid: Algerian gunman linked to Paris attacks, shot dead in police raid in suburb of Forest on March 15

ZAVENTEM AIRPORT

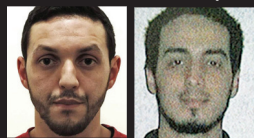

Main terminal,
Departure hall

07:00GMT: First explosion near check-in area

Second explosion near Starbucks cafe

ON THE RUN

Najim Laachraoui: Alias Soufiane KayaI sought in connection with Paris attacks ▼

▲ Mohamed Abrini: Belgian national and childhood friend of Abdeslam

Pictures: Associated Press

© GRAPHIC NEWS