

Fairytale ending for Leicester City

Leicester City have won the first top-flight championship in their 132-year history after title rivals Tottenham failed to beat 2015 champions Chelsea, leaving an insurmountable gap between the teams

Claudio Ranieri has transformed team from relegation strugglers to potential champions

Leicester saw off the challenge of Spurs, Arsenal and Manchester City on their way to the title

LEAGUE POSITION

77 points

70pts

64pts

64pts

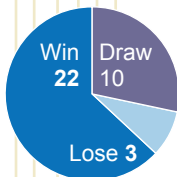

1st Odds of winning at start of season: 5000-1

Nov 28: Jamie Vardy breaks Premier League record, scoring in 11th consecutive match

Apr 24: Riyad Mahrez voted PFA Player of Year by fellow professionals

CHAMPIONS COMPARED

	F	A	Pts
2016* Leicester	64	34	77
2015 Chelsea	73	32	87
2014 Man. City	102	37	86
2013 Man. Utd	86	43	89
2012 Man. City	93	29	89
2011 Man. Utd	78	37	80
2010 Chelsea	103	32	86
2009 Man. Utd	68	24	90
2008 Man. Utd	80	22	87
2007 Man. Utd	83	27	89

*Final figures TBC

Goals for/against

SECRETS OF SUCCESS

Possession: Leicester allow opposition possession but score on counter-attack

Leicester 4-0 Swansea

Players: Consistent lineup – 9 players have made 30+ league appearances

