

Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, turns 95

Illustration: Bob Hoare

■ 1921: Born June 10 in Corfu, fifth child and only son of Prince Andrew of Greece and Denmark and Princess Alice of Battenberg

■ 1922: Family settles near Paris after Andrew is banished from Greece following war with Turkey

■ 1928-39: Philip educated in UK, first at Cheam, later at Gordonstoun

■ 1939: Joins Royal Navy, meets Princess Elizabeth for first time when Royal Family visits Royal Naval College, Dartmouth

■ 1940-45: War service. Mentioned in despatches for service in Battle of Matapan. Promoted to lieutenant in 1942

■ 1947: Renounces Greek and Danish titles prior to engagement to Princess Elizabeth. Created Duke of Edinburgh on wedding day. Created Prince of UK in 1957

■ 1948-51: Continues naval career, rising to rank of commander before royal duties intervene

■ 1952: In Kenya, breaks news to Elizabeth that she is now Queen, following death of George VI

■ 1956: Founds Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme (DofE) for young people

■ 1961-96: President, first of UK and later International World Wildlife Fund, one of 800 organisations of which he has been patron

■ 2009: Becomes Britain's longest-serving royal consort

■ 2016: Prince Philip's 95th birthday coincides with official celebrations for the Queen's 90th