

The migration numbers row

There are two measures of immigration to Britain – the International Passenger Survey (IPS) which counts people coming through air and sea ports, and the number of National Insurance number registrations (NINo)

2.68 million

Number of people born in other EU countries living in UK, according to 2011 Census

1.81 million

Number of British migrants in other EU countries – 963,000 people born in Britain and 849,000 people with British nationality, according to Eurostat

EU countries with most foreign-national residents (January 2015)

