

Negative views of Brussels on the rise

A survey in 10 EU nations – accounting for 82% of the bloc's GDP – finds that Euroscepticism is on the rise, with significant minorities wanting some powers returned from Brussels to national governments

Percentage who have unfavourable view of EU
(10,491 respondents from April 4 to May 12, 2016)

†Referendum on constitutional reforms in October could trigger vote on eurozone. 68% of Italians disapprove of EU's handling of economy, 77% unhappy with EU's handling of refugees