

Central London knife attack

One woman has died and five other people were injured in a knife attack in central London. Police say terrorism is one line of inquiry but early indications suggest mental health is a significant factor

21:33GMT, Russell Square: Police respond to reports of man injuring people with knife. Woman in her 60s dies at scene. Three men and two women injured. 19-year-old man arrested within six minutes

