

AUG 29 – SEP 11

U.S. Open 2016: Men's preview

Novak Djokovic

Andy Murray

Stan Wawrinka

Marin Cilic

Two-time winner looking to regain form after shock early defeats at Wimbledon and Rio Olympics

Aiming to emulate 2012 success by winning second U.S. Open crown after defending Olympic gold

After disappointing summer, two-time major champion hoping to improve on last four here in 2015

2014 champion excels on hard courts. Claimed first Masters title in Cincinnati, beating Murray

PLAYER RECORD*	Djokovic	Murray	Wawrinka	Cilic
2016 win-loss	51-5	50-7	32-12	32-17
2016 titles	7	4	3	1
Career titles (total)	66	39	14	15
Grand Slams	12	3	2	1

Djokovic (6), Murray, Wawrinka, and Cilic have shared last nine Grand Slam titles since Wimbledon 2014

SIZZLING SUMMER FORM:

Murray's 22-match winning streak, which started at Queen's and included triumphs at Wimbledon and Rio 2016, ended in Cincinnati. He has reached final in each of his last seven tournaments

Murray: Record since Madrid Masters

