

Today in History

October 22, 2006

▲ Seven-time Formula 1 champion Michael Schumacher retired from the sport, though he returned from 2010-12. He was seriously injured in a skiing accident in 2013

1721: Peter the Great was proclaimed Emperor of all the Russias

1907: Panic following a run on the stock of New York's Knickerbocker Trust Company led to a depression

1966: The Supremes became the first all-female group to top the Billboard 200 album charts in the United States with The Supremes A' Go-Go

1973: Catalan cellist Pablo Casals, renowned for his interpretations of Bach's work, died