

Today in History

October 26, 1956

▲ The International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) was founded, to promote the safe and peaceful use of nuclear energy, and it inhibit its use for any military purpose

1861: The first telephone shown in public, built by Johann Philipp, was demonstrated in Frankfurt, Germany

1861: America's Pony Express was officially closed

1896: The Treaty of Addis Ababa was signed, establishing peace between Italy and Abyssinia (Ethiopia) and recognising Abyssinian independence

2010: Paul the octopus, an unlikely star of the 2010 World Cup, died at his aquarium in Germany