

Singapore hosts WTA Finals 2016

Round robin: Players drawn into two groups of four.
Top two players in each group advance to semi-finals

0 Rank  W/L 2016

QUALIFIED

1 Angelique Kerber

59 17

Two Grand Slam titles, at U.S. and Australian Opens, secured coveted No.1 ranking

QUALIFIED

2 Agnieszka Radwanska

51 16

Winner in 2015. Won Beijing title but struggled to make impact in Slams this year

QUALIFIED

3 Simona Halep

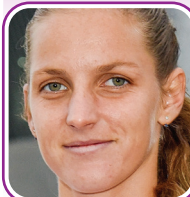

44 16

Titles in Madrid, Montreal and Bucharest – hoping to better early exit in 2015

QUALIFIED

4 Karolina Pliskova

42 20

U.S. Open finalist set to debut at Finals – secured first Premier 5 title in Cincinnati

QUALIFIED

5 Garbine Muguruza

34 18

First Grand Slam title at Roland Garros remains only final in topsy-turvy year

QUALIFIED

6 Madison Keys

46 15

Finals debut. Two Premier 5 finals and title in Birmingham to break into Top 10

QUALIFIED

7 Dominka Cibulkova

50 19

Career-high rank after resurgent 2016 – making six finals and winning three

CONTENDER

8 Johanna Konta

44 21

Breakthrough season – could become first British woman in Finals since 1980

 Serena Williams, World No. 2, has withdrawn due to shoulder injury

9 10 Carla Suarez Navarro or Svetlana Kuznetsova can overhaul Konta for remaining berth with title in Moscow at VTB Kremlin Cup