

U.S. trails other nations in voter turnout

Early voting in critical U.S. states suggests a higher turnout than expected, reversing a trend that has persisted for years

VOTER TURNOUT (most recent elections in selected developed nations)

Country Election year

Voter turnout

During 2012 presidential election, 129 million votes were cast

*Voting compulsory but not necessarily enforced. One Swiss canton retains compulsory voting

Sources: Statista, Forbes

© GRAPHIC NEWS