

Rapid rise of mobile advertising

In 2010, when mobile broke into mainstream advertising, newspapers and television were dominant with almost two thirds (61.1%) of all global advertising revenue, around $281.3 billion

Global advertising spending (US$ billions, percentage share)

