

January 10, 2016

▲ Singer David Bowie, one of the most influential musicians of his era, died from cancer at age 69. His final album, Blackstar, was released just two days earlier

1971: Influential French fashion designer Coco Chanel died

1997: Arnoldo Aleman was sworn in as president of Nicaragua

2002: Enron's accounting firm, Arthur Andersen, admitted shredding Enron documents before the troubled company went bankrupt

2008: Colombia's Farc rebel group freed two female politicians, Consuelo Gonzalez and Clara Rojas, who were held hostage for five years