

Millions facing food crisis in East Africa

Humanitarian agencies are scaling up campaigns for food and medical aid as more than 20 million people face the threat of starvation in countries gripped by conflict and drought across East Africa

FOOD INSECURITY: February-May 2017 forecast

Minimal Stressed Crisis Emergency Famine

● Number of people in need of urgent food assistance (millions)

