

Today in History

May 3, 2016

▲ A massive wildfire in Canada forced the evacuation of the entire 88,000-strong population of the city of Fort McMurray. Over 2,500 buildings were destroyed

1968: Students and police clashed violently at the start of a month of disturbances in Paris

1988: It was revealed that President Ronald Reagan's decisions were influenced by his wife's astrologer

2007: Madeleine McCann, 3, vanished from her hotel room in Portugal, sparking a huge media campaign

2016: The wreck of HMS Endeavour, in which Captain Cook discovered Australia was located in the U.S.