

South Korea tests Olympic bullet train

A new high-speed rail line linking South Korea's capital Seoul and the PyeongChang 2018 Winter Olympic venues has been completed and is in its "testing phase", according to Olympic organisers

KOREA TRAIN EXPRESS (KTX) SANCHEON

Built by Hyundai Rotem, based on French TGV Réseau

Maximum operating speed: 300km/h

Passenger capacity: 410 seats

Total length of train: 201m (15 cars)

Weight: 406 tonnes

