

Recent terrorist attacks against the West

Monday night's suicide bomb attack at a pop concert in Manchester, England, that killed at least 22 people and injured 59 others is the latest in a series of recent terrorist attacks aimed at the West

■ Apr 20, 2017, Paris: Champs Elysees attack kills police officer

■ Apr 7, Stockholm: Truck attack leaves five people dead

■ Apr 3, Saint Petersburg: Suicide bombing on subway kills 15 people

■ Mar 22, London: Westminster Bridge attack kills five people, including police officer

■ Feb 3, Paris: Failed knife attack on soldiers guarding Louvre Museum

■ Dec 19, 2016, Berlin: Christmas market truck attack kills 12

■ Nov 28, U.S.: Ohio State University student drives car into group of people

■ Oct 16, Hamburg: "Lone wolf" knife attack kills one teenager

■ Jul 26, France: Two men murder priest in Normandy church

■ Jul 14, Nice: Truck drives through crowd on Bastille Day, killing 77 people

■ Jun 12, 2016, U.S.: Orlando nightclub shooting leaves 50 dead

■ Mar 26, Brussels: Triple suicide bombings kill 32 people

■ Jan 11, Marseille: Jewish teacher attacked with machete

■ Dec 2, 2015, U.S.: Married couple shoot dead 14 people in California

■ Nov 13, Paris: Coordinated attacks kill 130 people in restaurants, concert hall and near sports stadium

■ Aug 21, Paris: Gunman armed with Kalashnikov is overpowered after opening fire on train from Amsterdam

■ Feb 14-15, Copenhagen: Danish gunman kills two people and wounds five police officers

■ Jan 7-9, Paris: Attack on offices of satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo leaves 12 dead and 11 wounded. Four related attacks around Paris follow, killing five people