

World leaders tackle declining fish stocks

A UN conference on the world's oceans is warning that the number of stocks being caught unsustainably is continuing to rise – even though overall sea-fishing levels remain steady for the past three decades

GLOBAL FISH PRODUCTION
(tonnes millions)

GLOBAL MARINE FISH STOCKS
(Percentage)

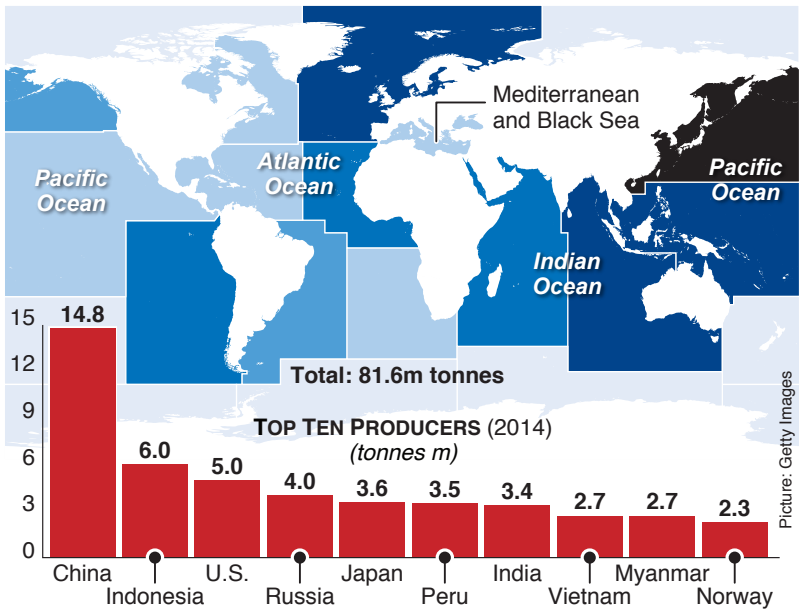

GLOBAL FISH TAKES (2014)

Major fishing areas (tonnes m)

2013: 32% of fish stocks being exploited beyond sustainable limit, up from 10% in 1970s

Picture: Getty Images