

Today in History

July 6, 1952

▲ London's last trams were withdrawn from service after almost a century in operation. The first trams, which appeared in 1861, were horse-drawn

1942: Anne Frank and her family took refuge from the Nazis by going into hiding in Amsterdam

2002: Gunmen shot dead Afghanistan's vice president Haji Abdul Qadir in Kabul

2016: Olympic athlete Oscar Pistorius was sentenced to six years in jail for the murder of his girlfriend

2016: Nintendo released its augmented reality game, Pokémon Go, which became an instant hit