

Today in History

July 27, 2003

▲ U.S. teenager Michael Phelps, 18, became the first swimmer to set five world records in a single meet at the world championships in Barcelona, Spain

1054: Scottish king Macbeth, immortalised by Shakespeare, was defeated at Dunsinane

2001: Scientists blamed overfishing for the collapse of the world's coastal ecosystems

2002: Prime Minister Helen Clark become the first New Zealand woman to win back-to-back elections

2013: The first Przewalski's horse foal was born by artificial insemination