

Helicopter attacks Venezuela's Supreme Court

A Venezuelan police helicopter strafed the Supreme Court and the Interior Ministry in Caracas, in what President Nicolás Maduro called an attack by “terrorists” seeking a coup

Supreme Court:
Four grenades dropped

Interior Ministry:
15 shots fired

Helicopter piloted by investigative police officer Oscar Pérez, who declared himself in rebellion against President Maduro

National Assembly

Miraflores presidential palace

Francisco de Miranda Airbase: Police helicopter allegedly stolen

CARACAS

1km
0.6 miles