

Paris in lock-down for Trump's visit

Maximum security measures will be in place for the two-day visit of U.S. President Donald Trump, President Emmanuel Macron's guest of honour as he leads his first Bastille Day celebrations

MQ-9 Reaper: To fly surveillance mission over Paris on Bastille Day

Area closed to traffic on July 14

Jul 14: "Don't Let Your Guard Down Against Trump" march starting at Place de Clichy

Anti-Trump protests

Jul 13: "No Trump Zone" featuring music and dancing in Place de la République

THURSDAY, Jul 13

■ Trump visits American Military Cemetery in Suresnes (1) and lays wreath at Memorial de l'Escadrille La Fayette (2) honouring U.S. pilots killed in World War I

■ Macron receives Trump at Elysée Palace (3) for talks including fight against terrorism, global trade and environment. Talks followed by press conference

FRIDAY, Jul 14

■ Trump views military parade down Champs-Élysées behind bullet-proof screen (4). 200 U.S. soldiers will march alongside French troops to mark 100th anniversary of America's entry into World War I

■ Macron and wife Brigitte host Trump and first lady Melania Trump for dinner at Le Jules Verne restaurant in Eiffel Tower (5)