

Cilic out to derail Roger's record attempt

An eighth Wimbledon victory for Roger Federer would set an outright record, which he currently shares with Pete Sampras and 19th-century player William Renshaw. Standing in his way is Marin Cilic, who beat Federer on his way to winning the U.S. Open in 2014

Marin
Cilic CRO

Roger Federer SUI

HEAD-TO-HEAD

W1

6 wins

ROUTE TO FINAL

P. Kohlschreiber R1	A. Dolgoplov
F. Mayer R2	D. Lajovic
S. Johnson R3	M. Zverev
R. Bautista Agut R4	G. Dimitrov
G. Muller QF	M. Raonic
S. Querrey SF	T. Berdych
6-7, 6-4, 7-6, 7-5	7-6, 7-6, 6-4

WIMBLEDON RECORD

2016 15 14 13

QF QF QF R2

*First appearance in Wimbledon
final, at 11th attempt*

Source: ATP

GRAND SLAM BEST

S-final	Australian Open	5 wins
Q-final	Roland Garros	Won 2009
Final	Wimbledon	7 wins
Won 2014	U.S. Open	5 wins

17

ATP titles

WIMBLEDON RECORD

2016 15 14 13

SF F F R2

*Victory would take Grand Slam tally
to 19, four clear
of nearest rival*

© GRAPHIC NEWS

Pictures: Getty Images