

German car industry by the numbers

BMW, Daimler and the Volkswagen Group are accused of holding secret meetings since the 1990s – in particular colluding on diesel exhaust treatment systems – according to German news magazine Der Spiegel

DAIMLER

Global sales revenue (Jan-Dec 2016)

€94.16bn

€153.26bn

€217.27bn

Vehicle production (million units, 2016)  Cars  Commercial vehicles

China  24.42 3.70 28.12

U.S. 3.93 8.31 12.24

Japan 7.87 1.33 9.20

Germany 5.75 6.06 11.81

Germany is world's fourth largest automaker, building 6,062,562 vehicles last year

792,500

Workforce (2015)

41 Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs)

4.5 million

79% of cars built in Germany in 2015 were exported

70%

More than seven-in-10 of all premium-branded vehicles produced globally are manufactured by German OEMs

EU Cartel fines

Companies can escape fines by "self-reporting".
Maximum cap of 10% of global sales revenues for cartel infringements

