

Massive earthquake hits southern Mexico

A powerful earthquake struck off the southern coast of Mexico late on Thursday, the U.S. Geological Survey said. The quake caused buildings to sway in Mexico's capital some 1,000km away

