

Today in History

January 2, 2002

▲ Scientists announced they had successfully cloned pigs without the presence of a gene that would cause a human body to reject a transplant

1933: Anarchists in Barcelona rioted against the government of Prime Minister Manuel Azana of Spain

1938: German Chancellor Adolf Hitler was named “Man of the Year” by Time magazine

2003: Venezuela requested international help to resolve a crisis caused by a month-long general strike

2010: Icelanders voted not to repay foreign savers who lost $5 billion when Icelandic banks collapsed