

February 13, 2017

▲ Kim Jong-nam, half-brother of North Korean leader Kim Jong-un, was killed after two women sprayed poison on his face at Kuala Lumpur Airport

1883: German composer Richard Wagner died in Italy

2003: Initial findings into the Columbia disaster suggested that a breach in the space shuttle's skin allowed entry of superheated gases

2008: Australia apologised to the Aboriginal "Stolen Generation", forcibly taken from their families as children

2011: Thousands of Italian women protested against premier Silvio Berlusconi's recent sex scandals