

Today in History

March 7, 1918

▲ The Bolsheviks changed their name to the Russian Communist Party at the first congress held after they gained power in the October Revolution

1973: Sheikh Mujibur Rahman won a landslide victory in Bangladesh's first general election

1993: Afghanistan's rival leaders signed a peace accord to end months of bloody fighting in Kabul

2016: Tennis star Maria Sharapova revealed she had failed a drugs test at the Australian Open

2017: The U.S. deployed the THAAD missile defense system in South Korea as a deterrent to the North