

Today in History

March 10, 2017

▲ Park Geun-hye became the first elected president of South Korea to be forced from office, after judges upheld her impeachment over a corruption scandal

1993: President Suharto of Indonesia was re-elected for a sixth five-year term

1993: U.S. gynaecologist David Gunn was shot dead by an anti-abortion activist in Florida

2003: After six months of civil war, Seydou Diarra became premier of Cote d'Ivoire under a French-brokered accord

2003: Deutsche Telekom announced losses of $27.1 billion, at the time the largest shortfall in European corporate history