

Today in History

March 15, 44BC

▲ Roman Emperor Julius Caesar was stabbed to death in the Senate on the Ides of March by a group of senators led by Brutus and Cassius

459: Attila the Hun, one of the most feared enemies of the Roman Empire, died from a nose bleed

1985: Military rule ended in Brazil

2003: World Health Organisation officials issued an alert on SARS (Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome), a new illness sweeping the Far East

2017: A second U.S. judge blocked President Donald Trump's revised order on immigration from Muslim-majority countries