

Central America-South Korea trade deal

South Korea and five Central American countries have signed a free trade deal to gradually eliminate duties on over 95 percent of goods within the next ten years

