

Today in History

March 24, 2016

▲ New Zealanders voted to retain their existing flag over a proposed design featuring the silver fern. More than two million people voted in the referendum

1958: Rock and roll star Elvis Presley was drafted into the U.S. Army

2009: The U.S. government increased border security to combat Mexico's spiralling drug war

2010: Indian scientists said that a tiny island in the Bay of Bengal had disappeared beneath the rising seas

2016: Former Bosnian Serb leader Radovan Karadzic was sentenced to 40 years for war crimes, including the Srebrenica massacre