

Today in History

April 1, 1918

▲ Britain's Royal Air Force was formed by an amalgamation of the Royal Flying Corps and Royal Naval Air Force. It is the world's oldest independent air force

1919: Germany's Bauhaus school, combining crafts with the fine arts, was founded by Walter Gropius

1927: The first gramophone to change records automatically went on sale

2012: Aung San Suu Kyi won a seat in Myanmar's parliament, having been released after 20 years under house arrest in 2010

2016: An extensive coral reef system was discovered off the coast of French Guiana and northern Brazil