

What we know about the Syria strikes

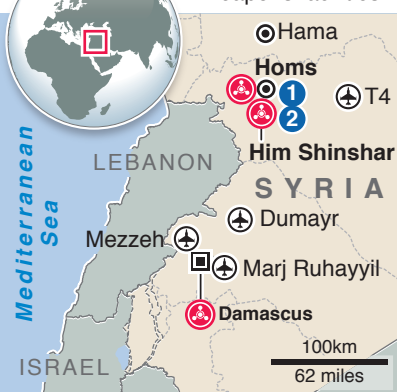

The U.S., Britain and France launched coordinated strikes against targets within Syria in response to the alleged Douma chemical weapons attack by the forces of President Bashar al-Assad

Alleged chemical weapons facilities

Rebel-held areas

So-called Islamic State

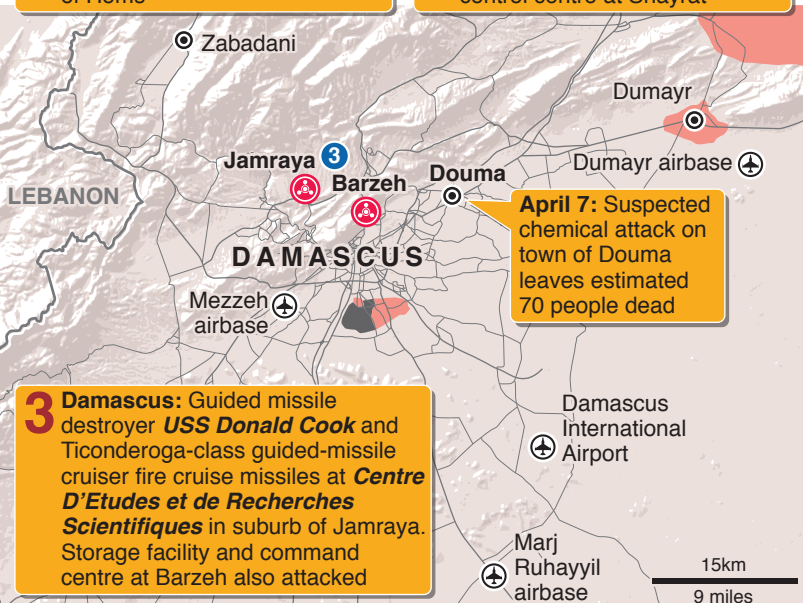

Centre D'Etudes et de Recherches Scientifiques – alleged chemical and biological weapons research facility

1 Homs: Four Royal Air Force Tornado GR4s launch Storm Shadow fire-and-forget missiles at storage facility 24km west of Homs

2 Homs: French Mirage and Rafale fighter jets attack chemical weapons equipment storage and command and control centre at Shayrat

April 7: Suspected chemical attack on town of Douma leaves estimated 70 people dead

3 Damascus: Guided missile destroyer USS Donald Cook and Ticonderoga-class guided-missile cruiser fire cruise missiles at Centre D'Etudes et de Recherches Scientifiques in suburb of Jamraya. Storage facility and command centre at Barzeh also attacked