

Trump hosts Macron for first state visit

Donald Trump hosts French President Emmanuel Macron in the first official state visit of his presidency. Macron hopes to convince Trump to stay in the Iran nuclear accord and extend a waiver for U.S. tariffs on European trade

MONDAY – APRIL 23

Macron and wife Brigitte arrive in Washington DC. They will stay at Blair House (1) – guest residence opposite White House

Trump and first lady Melania Trump dine with couple at Mount Vernon (2) in Virginia – former home of George Washington, founding father of United States

TUESDAY

Presidents hold private meeting, then broader discussion with advisers, followed by press conference

Macrons lunch with Vice President Mike Pence and present U.S. veterans with medals for their military service in helping to free France during World War II

State dinner at White House (3)

WEDNESDAY

Macron addresses Congress (4) and meets students from George Washington University (5). Holds press conference before flying back to Paris