

Today in History

June 16, 2017

▲ Helmut Kohl, Chancellor of Germany from 1982-98, died at the age of 87. Kohl is credited with the reunification of Germany after the fall of the Berlin Wall

1958: Imre Nagy, prime minister of Hungary during the 1956 anti-Soviet uprising, was hanged for treason

1963: Soviet cosmonaut Valentina Tereshkova became the first woman to be launched into space

2003: The world's first offshore tidal-energy turbine was launched off the coast of southwest England

2003: The IAEA said Iran had failed to report building a uranium enrichment plant at Natanz