

Key ministers in Italy's populist government

Italy's anti-establishment Five Star Movement and the right-wing League have succeeded in forming western Europe's first populist government, which will be headed by a political novice whose first attempt was rejected as too risky for the Italian economy

Industry and Deputy Prime Minister

Luigi Di Maio, 31
M5S party leader

Prime Minister
Giuseppe Conte, 53

Interior and Deputy Prime Minister

Matteo Salvini, 45
League party leader

Economy Minister

Giovanni Tria, 69

Foreign Minister

Enzo Moavero Milanesi, 63

Defence Minister

Elisabetta Trenta, 51

European affairs

Paolo Savona, 81

POPULIST PARTIES IN ITALIAN PARLIAMENT: Total 630 seats

Five Star Movement (M5S)

Democratic Party (PD)

Free and Equal (LeU) 14

League (LN)

Forza Italia (FI)

Brothers of Italy (Fdl) 32

Mixed 22

